Summary of reasons
for classification:

The magazine Teeny Exzesse Extreme Special Nr. 34 is classified as:
Objectionable.

Teeny Exzesse Extreme Special Nr. 34 has been considered under s3(2) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act). The publication promotes and supports the use of urine in association with sexual conduct and is deemed to be objectionable.

The magazine is made up of explicit sexual images and is intended for sexual titillation and arousal. Two photo-stories feature urination as part of the sexual activity shown. The acts are made to seem pleasurable and readers are clearly encouraged to see urination as a desirable and acceptable sexual practice. The availability of such material encourages and legitimates the use of urine in association with sexual conduct.

The classification of this publication interferes with the freedom of expression as set out in section 14 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. This outcome is consistent, however, with Parliament's intention that publications falling under section 3(2) of the FVPC Act are deemed to be objectionable.
